

SECRET

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 13 August 1959

1. Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, telephoned referring to the Drew Pearson article in THE WASHINGTON POST today. He requested that they be furnished with a copy of this report. Security was requested to look into the matter and eventually the Director telephoned apparently having been apprised of Sourwine's call. He advised there was no such CIA report and Sourwine was furnished this information. Sourwine said possibly the Subcommittee would direct a letter to the Agency on this matter.

Subsequently, the Director requested that HCUA be advised that this was not a CIA report. Accordingly, [ ] was so advised.

25X1A

2. [ ] telephoned to advise that General Starbird and others were going to give the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy a further briefing on the points of detection of nuclear explosions and at first the Director had suggested [ ] be present but it was agreed [ ] would only attend if the Joint Committee requested it.

25X1A

3. Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.) met with the Director with [ ] present in connection with S. Res. 115, the Subcommittee on National Policy Making Machinery. See Memorandum for the Record.

4. Dorothy Feddick in Senator Jackson's office telephoned asking for information about [ ] and indicating they would like her there as soon as possible. She also hoped that the clearance could be kept open. I indicated that I would look into this since normally the clearances they received on the Hill were from DOD. She furnished the name of a Major Nicholson.

5. Kenneth Mansfield on the staff of the Jackson Subcommittee on National Policy Making Machinery telephoned requesting that Agency representatives meet with the staff to go over the outline of the proposed reports on the Soviet and Chinese Communist policy making machinery. Arrangements were made to meet with them at 2:00 p.m. tomorrow. [ ] will accompany [ ] and there will be one other Agency representative.

25X1A

SECRET